| 1 For the glory of old State,For her founders strong and great,For the future that we wait,    Raise the song, raise the song. 2 Sing our love and loyalty,Sing our hopes that, bright and free,Rest, O Mother dear, with thee,    All with thee, all with thee. 3 When we stood at boyhood's gate,Shapeless in the hands of fate,Thou didst mold us, dear old State,    Into men, into men. | 4 May no act of ours bring shameTo one heart that loves thy name,May our lives help swell thy fame,    Dear old State, dear old State. 5 Soon we know a guiding handWill disperse our little band,Yet we'll ever loyal stand    State to thee, State to thee. 6 Then Rah! Rah! for dear old State,For our love can ne'er abate!Ring the song with joy elate,    Loud and long, loud and long. |

"And was it not
A seer's, a poet's thought,
Here in the path of eager youth
In quest of truth,
Of tool and toil in quest,--
The strong new learning of the rising West,
Here at the crossroads where the thronging feet
Of youth and duty evermore shall meet,
To build this shrine, this white and silent dome,
For higher things the home?"
9. PRESENTATION of Resolutions and Testimonials to Mr. and Mrs.
Schwab
10. MUSIC ..... "Lucretia Borgia" ..... Donizetti
